WENTZ TELA CHAIR

The Tela lounge chair has given rise to a new version of the dining chair. Like its initial version, the backrest weave is inspired by the classic cane woven pattern of the mid-century furniture. The plot design has been recreated in a larger scale made with cotton thread for more comfort and durability. The chair has a lower backrest and can also be used to compose with the armchair in a living room or lounge. The design seeks maximum comfort with a minimal structure, light aesthetics and a tropical memory.
